And the Beat Goes On

It has truly been an amazing summer at BCYC, awash with activities for everyone, from our youngest to some of the rest of us whose age we would rather not discuss.

For instance, Camp Corinthian, under the able guidance of Junior Sailing Director Cameron MacLaren and our strong team of coaches, recently completed the six-week summer sailing camp with almost 100 eager students ranging in age from five to 15. If you had the opportunity to come down to the club, you saw the amazing job done by our dedicated staff. This culminated Aug. 5, with the Junior Awards Banquet, where BCYC hosted more than 250 parents, members and children. Thank you to Ramsey Johansson and her team of volunteers. As I have said in the past, this program has been a great way to introduce young parents to our club. In addition, our Junior sailors gain experience by representing BCYC in many regattas, both locally and nationally.

September 23 is the date for The Gala. This fundraising event, held for the first time in 2016, allows BCYC to purchase much-needed items to keep our Junior Sailing program state of the art. Please make your reservations to attend this worthy event.

Our Cruise Committee chairs, Lauri and Rear Commodore Steve Moffett, have had us on the water nonstop, from adventure-cruising in the Channel Islands, to the BCYC Camp Clambake at Cat Harbor. This event has been held for years, and is a major logistical challenge since it is all inclusive, and therefore we must trek everything from the mainland. My special thanks to Director Rhonda Tolar, Natalie Tolar and Russ Grant, our cruise chairs for Clambake, for making this event so special. In addition, our staff, headed by General Manager Scott Jones, Chef Georges Rapiault, Bar Manager Shawncy Little and others made sure our every need was covered. My children, now in their 40's, grew up with this event and now my grandchildren are doing the same. And if this is not enough, when you receive the electronic edition of the August/September Masthead, many of us will be rafted up in Newport Harbor to celebrate Labor Day. If you are around the club, please make plans to join us.

Finally, I would like to applaud our Finance Committee for their recent recommendations to the Board of Directors regarding ways in which we can significantly reduce some of our financial costs. Our recently adopted Strategic Plan calls for the club to maintain a fiscally sound posture. The recommendations presented and passed by the board will substantially reduce interest costs on our debt, as well as provide a vehicle to more appropriately manage our residual cash. Many thanks to committee chair Roland Rapp, Treasurer Gary Granbery, Director Stuart Leigh, Director JR Means and Dene Stratton. Their valued input has gone a long way in helping us fulfill our Strategic Plan mandate.

Be Involved

Rebecca Corbin, Marianne Homer and Teri Leigh are involved. This trio has gotten the paint-a-tile project off the ground. The August tile painting day saw more than 20 tiles completed, with the next one scheduled for Sept. 17. Be part of this amazing wall feature located in the swimming pool area, creating your very own timeless treasure. Contact the club office to purchase a tile and reserve your time slot to paint it. Proceeds from this project will be used to beautify this area for all members to enjoy.

A great way to get involved at BCYC is to serve as Officer of the Deck. You get to know the club and help other members and guests.

Be involved, wear your name tag and invite a friend or business associate to join BCYC. Membership packets are available from the club office. If you have any membership-related questions, please feel free to contact me.

Supporting High Achievement on the Water

We are Ready!

The Gala fundraising had an early start at the recent Junior Awards Banquet, where we held a live auction of an Ullman Sabot racing sail, signed by Gary Jobson, Mark Gaudio, Dave Ullman and Jeff Lenhart. It sold for a whopping $1,050! This is a great beginning and we appreciate the early support of The Sailing Foundation.

The Gala will take place on Saturday, Sept. 23. Please join us in supporting high achievement on the water. All involved in planning of this event are ready for a great evening. We hope to see you there!

*Great Summer
Cruising and More to Come*

The Santa Barbara Cruise was amazing! Our “land-based” cruisers met our “adventure cruisers” in Santa Barbara on Friday for a great cocktail/dinner party, created by Natalie and Director Rhonda Tolar, with assistance from EB and Susan Barden, Lori and Mike Curtin, and Russ Grant, as well as many others who made this such fun! Thank you so much for all your help. Lunch on Saturday at Santa Barbara Yacht Club was delicious, and so was dinner that night at Harry’s Plaza Café.

A huge thanks to Director Larry Fortmuller for putting together a great adventure cruise through the Channel Islands. The weather was perfect and made for very comfortable passages through Santa Rosa, Santa Cruz and Santa Catalina islands. Some highlights included a visit by four boats to the Painted Cave on Santa Cruz, an Italian Potluck on shore at Prisoners’ Harbor on Santa Cruz, kayaking around Arch Rock and Pelican Bay, and happy hour on the Gasaway’s Sea Turtle and Fortmuller’s Simply Grand. There are many pictures on our website that are well worth viewing.

Camp Clambake was another great success. Our awesome BCYC staff was there to make sure we were well taken care of. We all had some great laughs watching our camp teams pitch a tent, compete in relays on water toys, limbo under the bar, holler Bunco, build and race their self-built boats, roast marshmallows, and display their talents in team skits!

Sept 1-4 is our Newport Raft-Up and Staycation. There will be a water shuttle at BCYC to bring members to the raft-up and return to the club for some events. Land cruisers can drive over to the Lighthouse Bay View Café to join in on Friday night fun. In addition, there will be a Saturday night potluck dinner on boats at the raft-up. Then, make plans to meet at BCYC on Sunday night for the Taco Tuesday-style Sunday Supper buffet. Teri Leigh is our cruise captain for this in-harbor cruise, so contact her if you have any questions.

Our last cruise for the 2017 season will be a Mystery Cruise Oct. 6-8. You can register as of Sept. 9. More details to be revealed at the next cruise meeting on Sept. 6 at 7 p.m. Be there.

Sailing Scene

September is a very active month with back-to-school, the Fall Sailing program beginning and The Gala 2017!

High school sailing is ramping back up and we're pleased to welcome Mater Dei High School to BCYC for their first season training out of our facility. This team has several recent alumni who are also program sailors, coaches and members of BCYC, including Danielle Ahir, Robert Bents, Sarah Politiski, Caden Wheeler and Anthony Zorayan to name a few. Additionally, Junior Staff Commodore Kate Hampton is also an alumnus. Not only has the team upgraded their facility, they have also hired a new head coach for their sailing team – our very own Matt Peter! Matt is looking forward to meeting the kids and helping the team achieve their goals throughout the coming school year.

Our Fall Sailing program begins this month, with the first day on Friday, Sept. 15! The program runs on Fridays after school from 3:30-6:30 p.m., and classes include Sabot Novice, Sabot racing, double-handed and Junior Mariners. Registration is at bcyc.org/juniors, but with only two weeks before the first day, spots are filling up quickly.

We are all looking forward to the Sailing Foundation fundraiser, Sept. 23 — The Gala 2017! Co-chairs Ramsey Johansson, Kari Konapelsky and Director Rhonda Tolar and their team have been hard at work planning an incredible evening for everyone. BCYC Junior Sailing is very grateful to be the primary beneficiary of this event, and we are thrilled to put these funds to the best possible use for our program. Thank you to all the members who have worked so hard to ensure a successful event and special thanks to the many generous donors who make it all possible!

A Whirlwind of Summer Events for our Junior Sailors

Another fantastic summer for the BCYC Junior sailors has come and gone, and the Junior Events Committee was there to bring some additional fun to Camp Corinthian. Mindy Wood led the coordination of the Pirate Day Sail-A-Thon, an annual fundraiser elevated to a new level of organization and fun. This year, the event reached a record $5,000-plus, thanks to Mindy, the JEC team and the contributions of so many families participating in the Camp Corinthian summer program.

The Camp Corinthian Carnival, brainchild of Mindy Wood, also reached an extraordinary level of fun. When you see Junior Sailing Director Cameron MacClaren or Head Coach Matt Peter, ask them what it's like to be duct-taped to a wall and have pies thrown at you! This extremely popular happening couldn't take place without the generosity and efforts of many parent volunteers.

Finally, the summer program ended with the Awards Banquet, honoring the accomplishments of BCYC's Junior sailors and exceptional Camp Corinthian coaches. The program enjoyed the highest enrollment in many years, which created a challenge to keep the ceremony as short as possible and accommodate all the sailors and their proud families at the banquet. BCYC management and staff rose to the occasion and a great time was had by all. Very special thanks to our raffle volunteers, whose efforts helped raise $3,000 for the Junior Program, and to Mark Gaudio for conducting a highly successful live auction and Fund-A-Need, raising more than $8,000 to benefit The Sailing Foundation!

Parent Education at Camp Pendleton

When I started teaching in Irvine, my first school was the home school for the Tustin Helicopter Base. So many of our students were behind in their education because parents were frequently relocated, and they weren't receiving a consistent course of instruction. I told myself then that if I EVER had the opportunity to help military students, I would jump at it. And jump I did, thanks to the generosity of the Las Commodoras Board of Directors and many of our members!

In 2016, the Las Commodoras board graciously created a special position, enabling me to create and present parent workshops on learning strategies to help military parents help their children. Kristy Parr, a gifted and knowledgeable speech therapist (and my dear friend), and I collaborated on two. The first was "Organization, Behavior Management Lite, and Math Strategies," and the second was devoted to behavior, with the assistance of Kristy's wonderful elementary school psychologist. With the help of other Las Commodoras board members and our driver, Dick Stone, we took a full truckload of materials to distribute to Marine parents at Camp Pendleton, all of which were gratefully received.

The next workshop, July 28, focused on "Learning to Read, Writing and Spelling" for parents of pre-K to third grade students; to be followed in October by "Preparing for the Work Force," requested by military spouses to help them enter the work force. The last, in January 2018, will focus on "Reading to Learn, Writing and Spelling" for parents of students in grades 4-12. Again, we will provide information and another truckload of materials.

An additional goal is to obtain backpacks for the students – if any of you have connections for this valuable item, please let me know.

I wish I had the words to adequately express how appreciative our Camp Pendleton Marine parents are for this assistance. Many are young mothers who are single parents while dads are deployed, often for many months, and they have all scooped up the information and materials. We've gotten rave reviews and even a Certificate of Merit from the base commander!

I am immensely grateful to Las Commodoras for this opportunity, to the Camp Pendleton administration for embracing our program, to Kristy for her support and incredible skill, Dick for transporting us and all those boxes, and to those of you who contributed to help fund this project – it truly would not have been possible without all of you! This is literally a dream I've had for 30 years come true, and one of the most rewarding experiences of my career.

The new BCYC Paddle Board and Kayak Rack

Announcing our new paddleboard and kayak rack in the boatyard. The rack is located on the wall by the stairs and can accommodate six paddle boards and eight kayaks. Some members have stored their boats on the rack already – storage charge is $24 per month. With the BCYC-owned paddle boards and kayaks, we currently have 100 percent occupancy.

If you don't want the hassle of owning your own paddle board or kayak, the club now has five paddle boards and five kayaks available for our member's use at no charge. We only ask for a $10 donation if you bring a guest. Members must be at least 16 years old to check out the equipment. Simply call the club office to reserve the time you would like to borrow the equipment. When you are ready to go, just stop at the club office to pick up the paddles and sign a liability form. Several families and singles as well have checked out the equipment and they keep returning to do it again for more fun on the water!

My Moments

As both my year representing the Junior Board of Directors, and the summer sailing season come to a bittersweet close, I reflect on an overwhelming set of “lasts.” As a sailor, any period of time elapsing does not matter to me as much as the five minutes before a start.

At five minutes before the start of a race, we sailors stare at the huge course ahead before settling on a game plan to navigate through the endless possibilities of the competition. My “five-minute moment” in junior sailing was five years ago, involving my favorite youth regatta – the Junior Women’s Doublehanded Championship. I was 13, with absolutely no idea how to sail a club 420, I made no commitments to compete that year. However, each day, as we dropped off the girls we hosted, I saw clearly both the camaraderie and the competition, and grew more confident in formulating my own plan to compete in that event.

This year, in Annapolis, I sailed in my fourth and final JWDC regatta. I can say that this year was my favorite event, as I gained a second family thanks to my hosts, and learned a tremendous amount about competitive sailing from the lineup of world class coaches, my talented competitors, and the infamous Annapolis light wind conditions. Additionally, reaching the podium with a third-place finish brought this experience to a pinnacle, especially since the last time I was on the JWDC podium was in 2014 as a newbie with “Most Improved” sailor.

I now have one final “minute” as a junior sailor, entering my senior year on the Corona del Mar sailing team. As I often times feel during a start countdown, I wish nothing more than to freeze the clock and receive further time to reflect before continuing. But time moves forward and the only thing I can do when the gun goes off to adulthood is the same as on the start line – head with both energy and focus, and a trust that with all the lessons I’ve learned in my youth, I am the most prepared I’ve ever been.

I know I just floundered ever so soppily in the finality of it all — forgive me, as this is my last time writing for The Masthead too. But one thing I am thrilled to pass along is this role of Junior Commodore to my teammate and friend since Summer Program Starfish, Max Mayol. Having sailed with Max, I know we should all be confident with him at the helm. So, thank you, fellow juniors and advisor Mrs. Mayol for all your dedication and time invested in the Junior board. Lastly, thank you to BCYC for helping the Junior board to be successful, building me into a better sailor and allowing me to have the best memories of my life all as a kid under our burgee.

Cheers to the new race ahead.

Hello, Fall

We bade farewell to another beautiful Newport Beach summer with one last summer movie night on the patio. That was followed by the Tuscany on the Terrace evening featuring gondola rides, grape stomping and a fabulous Italian buffet. Thanks to Kari Konapelsky and the team of decorators for the beautiful setting, and to General Manager Scott Jones and staff for another beautiful evening at the club.

The fall Lounge Night, Sept. 9, is one not to miss. With Susan Barden and Lori Curtin co-chairing, the event theme is The Class of BCYC 2017: Reunited and it feels so good! Come as you are, check in to get your official reunion name tag, and dance the night away to tunes from throughout the decades – 50s, 60s, 70s and 80s - by our very own Aged to Perfection. Of course, you can expect your typical reunion antics so reserve your spot today by contacting the club office and sending the following to susan@lodestonepacific.com:

New Fall Dining Menus

Sunday Morning Lite Bites - During one of our recent food and beverage meetings, the topic of Sunday morning breakfast was discussed. Members love the Sunday Omelet Express where you can select from the many choices to create your special omelet. To complement this favorite dining experience, we are adding Sunday Morning Lite Bites, available only in the Columbia Room from 10-11:30 a.m. This new feature provides something for those members who prefer a lighter breakfast or want to grab some food to go. There are choices for kids and adults – see the menu here (to be inserted next to this article).

Finally Friday Gourmet Burgers - I hope everyone enjoyed our fabulous Finally Friday Gourmet Burgers this summer! You filled out your own burger ticket – we offered beef, bison and chicken, as well as a large variety of dressings, toppings and extras. The bison burger, a new choice, was very popular. A big thanks to Chef Georges Rapicault and our wonderful staff for making FFGB a huge success.

Sunday Night Suppers - This summer, our Sunday Night Suppers have been four-course meals with a variety of two entrée choices each week. Our décor, in our beautiful fireside lounge, has featured sunflowers and red-checked tablecloths. Starting Sept. 10, the decor will change to nautical with a fall flair. The new Sunday Night Supper menu will be “Chop House” style with higher end cuts of meat served with a variety of sides. This will be a plated entrée accompanied with fresh bread and butter. A few of our entrée choices could be petit filet, rib-eye steak, pork ribs, pork chops, lamb chops, salmon, swordfish and mahi mahi. There will be two entrée choices each Sunday night and pricing will vary based on the entrées offered. As we enter the holiday season, the Sunday Night Supper menu offering will probably change. As always, the Columbia Room menu is always available on Sunday night.

All members are welcome to attend the Food and Beverage Committee meetings held on the second Thursday of the month at 6 p.m. Rear Commodore Steve Moffett and General Manager Scott Jones always attend these meetings.

Summer Fun!

Our High Tea Luncheon, chaired by Kari Konapelsky and Secretary Ginny Lombardi, welcomed ladies to enjoy beautiful harp music, sip tea, a wonderful lunch and friendship.

Staff Commodore Ted O'Connor and Connie poured tea from the O'Connor silver tea service, generously donated by the O'Connor family to BCYC. Thank you to Kari, Ginny, Connie and Ted for your time and effort in making it a wonderful day for us to enjoy!

I had the honor to accompany Peggy Granbery recently to Camp Pendleton for Education Day – Peggy did a wonderful job (see more details in this issue of The Masthead about the remarkable service she is providing).

Make plans to join us for the Paint and Sip event, with wine and a light lunch. This not-to-miss party takes place on Sept. 21.

Check out The BCYC Flickr Album

The BCYC Flickr album is filling up fast with event and cruise photos from 2017. A particular highlight is spectacular photos from our recent BCYC Adventure Cruise to the Channel Islands. We had a group of really accomplished photographers on the trip, and they captured the excitement and beauty we experienced. I guarantee you'll enjoy the slideshow of this and all the 2017 events shared so far this year. To access, just go to bcyc.org and click on Photo Albums – Flickr in the members' section. Enjoy!

Results

The Junior Awards Banquet drew a record crowd. After enjoying this evening of pomp and glory, the junior sailors got back on the water and produced some very cool results. Junior Vice Commodore Max Mayol earned a second-place finish in the Laser Radial class at the Chubb Junior National Championship – this assures Max early acceptance to the 2018 U.S. Youth Championship. At the Junior Sabot Nationals, Jake Mayol won first place in the Sabot Gold fleet and Jett Brennan finished second in the Sabot Silver fleet. Earlier this summer, Max took second place at the U.S. Youth Sailing Championship in the multihull division, and Junior Commodore Sammy Pickell, with Emma Batcher, finished third in the 2017 Junior Women’s Doublehanded Championship.

While these highlight the juniors who made ‘the podium’ at these events, several other junior sailors reached personal best milestones and are hard at work to continue improving. All of this is due to the dedication shown by the Juniors, the support of their parents and the team of excellent sailing coaches led by Junior Sailing Director Cameron MacLaren and Head Coach Matt Peter. Well done!

Upgrading the BCYC facility is an ongoing project. The House Committee, headed by Staff Commodore Ted O’Connor, have had their hands in many pies, including the start of the paint-a-tile project and renovating the swimming pool area, and the soon-to-be completed carpet replacement on the main level of the club.

DID YOU KNOW ? Important Stuff

Did you know that it is mandatory that member boats in the marina fly the club burgee and that the burgee is in good condition? Visit the club office to get a new, replacement burgee.

Did you know that proper club etiquette requires that you not let your dog sit on the patio furniture? While your dog might be comfortable on the furniture, members and their guests are not happy about dog hair on their clothing.

Did you know that there have been several changes in the Columbia Room? Check out the placement of the popcorn machine and water dispensers.
